Laureate of the Medal of Cultural Achievement for Multiculturality and Interculturality awarded by the Cultural Centre of Vojvodina “Miloš Crnjanski“

Award

Dr. Agota Vitkai Kučera, Full Professor

Cultural Centre of Vojvodina “Miloš Crnjanski“ awards annual prizes with the aim to recognise and affirm true values and creative results in the field of culture and arts. Since 2017 this prize has been awarded to individuals for their achievements in a current year. Among four prizes, the Medal of Cultural Achievement for Multiculturality and Interculturality is awarded in the field of preservation and development of multilingual and cultural heritage of national minorities that live in the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina.

Agota Vitkai Kučera, PhD and Doctor of Arts, full professor at the Academy of Arts of the University of Novi Sad, received her PhD in 2013 at the Interdisciplinary and Multidisciplinary Studies and Research within the University of Novi Sad, while she received her Doctor of Dramatic and Audio-visual Arts Degree at the Academy of Arts of the University of Novi Sad. Her work covers pedagogical, scientific, research and art fields and in all those fields her work has helped to affirm and stimulate multiculturalism and intercultural communication. For years, Agota Vitkai Kučera has also been performing as a solo singer in the country and abroad. Multicultural approach as well as music of different genres is a constant characteristic of her rich repertoire.
