First place in the chamber music category (saxophone quartet "Papndopulo")

"Manhattan International Music Competition" (CARNEGIE HALL), New York, USA

Prof. Nikola Fabijanić, chamber music (saxophone)

The Manhattan International Music Competition has become a major symbol of classical music life in New York. Purpose of the 6th "Manhattan International Music Competition" is to discover artists of exceptional personality and secure prizes that can launch international careers: recitals at Carnegie Hall, one of the brightest places; CD recording with worldwide distribution (all expenses covered), 4 additional digital albums released via streaming platforms, cash prizes and many special prizes. This competition has advanced the professional careers of previous winners. Previous winners have performed at the most prestigious venues and festivals (Carnegie Hall, Berlin Philharmonic, La Scala, Wigmore Hall, Barbican Hall, Wiener Konzerthaus, etc.), and they performed as soloists with renowned international orchestras.
